SAYING SORRY

I’m Sorry

How to say sorry...

I am sorry

First of all – say the words. This can sometimes be the hardest part.

How to say sorry...

Because ...

Next, try to say what you are sorry for. Show that you understand the mistake you made.

How to say sorry...

Please forgive me

Ask the person for forgiveness

How to say sorry...

I will not do that again

Show that you have learned from your mistake.

Scenario 1

All the toys are out in class. You have been playing with them along with your friends.
Your teacher asks everyone to tidy up because it is lunchtime. You decide not to help as you want to play for a little longer.
Scenario 2
You have decided to play with a new set of friends today. Your best friend is alone in the playground.
- You see him/her but you are having too much fun and do not go over to them.
Your friend gets very upset.

Scenario 3
Your bedroom is a mess. Your parents ask you to tidy it. They ask you again and again but you never quite get round to it.
- When you come home from school, your room is tidy.
Your mum or dad must have tidied it for you.
