LEARNING OBJECTIVES:
Children know that it is always best to tell the truth, even if they might get into trouble.
Children understand the meaning of ‘honesty is the best policy’.

Suggested Resources:
Copy of The Boy Who Cried Wolf, plain paper and colouring pencils.

Script:
Remind children of last week’s lesson. What did we learn? Why should we be honest? Read the story of The Boy Who Cried Wolf and discuss the consequences of not telling the truth.

Character Coaching

Meaningful Praise:
Thank you for being honest.
Thank you for admitting what you did, I appreciate your honesty.

Guidance:
Remember that being honest is very important because it helps people to know that you can be trusted.

Suggested Activities:
At tables, give children some plain paper and pencils. They can draw a picture of an alternative ending to the story – what happened if the boy didn’t cry wolf. Give children an opportunity at the end of the lesson to share and explain their drawings.

Correction:
How could you use honesty next time this happens?
I need someone to practise honesty so that I know what really happened.
I was saddened that you did not practise honesty today. What will you do differently next time?
Please practise honesty.
