Homelessness

Yeading Junior School

Whilst shopping with your family in your local area, you see homeless people on the streets. Some other people appear to be giving them money. What do you think the best course of action would be?

Think points!

Is giving money the correct action?

Explain your answer.

Is there an opportunity here to undertake some Social Action?

What would this look like?

What is the right sort of help?

How can you and your school help in a safe way?
