

PEOPLE WHO INSPIRE US

SESSION B

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

To be able to explain to others why a particular person inspires us.

Script:

“Today we will start the lesson by having some time to practise our presentations. We need to think about some rules today too. What do we need to remember when we are presenting? What about when we are listening to someone else present?”

Suggested Resources:

N/A

Character Coaching

Guidance:

How can you be an inspiration to others?

Meaningful Praise:

You showed some of the qualities that are needed to succeed by presenting to the rest of the class.

Suggested Activities:

Children to present their research in front of their peers (this may be conducted as a speaking and listening activity during the course of the week).

Plenary:

Children evaluate their own presentations with reference to the success criteria.

Correction:

When X was giving their presentation, I noticed that you weren't listening. Can you tell me what impact it might have if people are not listening when you talk about something that matters to you?
