

Character in the Professions Online Course

Discussion Board Guidelines

These guidelines are designed to foster an environment of mutual respect and trust, and your use of the discussion boards implies your agreement to these guidelines.

1. Do not post personal information about any individual that allows others to identify them on the discussion boards, as this is a public forum.
2. You are responsible for any content you post. Please make sure that it is relevant to the topic.
3. Please keep the content of discussions on the topic of character education and related issues. The discussion boards are widely accessible and will be open to anyone who wishes to read and post on them.
4. Please be respectful and polite towards other users on the discussion boards and remember that others may not always share your point of view. Disruptive, offensive and abusive behaviour will not be tolerated and these posts will be removed immediately.
5. You are responsible for copyright infringement in your messages. Please remember that copyright infringement is a form of theft. Please make sure that your posts are your own and are free from copyright. If it is not, please ensure that you have received permission from the copyright holder to reproduce material for these purposes.
6. The discussion board administrator/moderator will delete posts which do not adhere to the guidelines in this document and are not related to the course.

Please remember at all times that all the comments posted on the discussion boards will be monitored.

All issues regarding messages or threads posted on the discussion board should be referred to the moderator Dr Binish Khatoon (b.khatoon@bham.ac.uk).
