R

• How to say sorry...

•  I am sorry

• First of all – say the words. This can sometimes be the hardest part.

R

• How to say sorry...

•  Because ...

• Next, try to say what you are sorry for. Show that you understand the mistake you made.

R

• How to say sorry...

•  Please forgive me

• Ask the person for forgiveness

R

• How to say sorry...

•  I will not do that again

• Show that you have learned from your mistake.

R

• Scenario 1

• All the toys are out in class. You have been playing with them along with your friends.

• Your teacher asks everyone to tidy up because it is lunchtime. You decide not to help as you want to play for a little longer.

R

Scenario 2

- You have decided to play with a new set of friends today. Your best friend is alone in the playground.
- You see him/her but you are having too much fun and do not go over to them. Your friend gets very upset.

R

Scenario 3

- Your bedroom is a mess. Your parents ask you to tidy it. They ask you again and again but you never quite get round to it.
- When you come home from school, your room is tidy. Your mum or dad must have tidied it for you.
