

PRACTISE INTRODUCTIONS AND ASKING QUESTIONS

SESSION A

Friendliness is:

- * Being kind and pleasant to others; acting in a friendly manner.
- * Not being hostile to others.
- * Sharing your time and taking an interest in others.
- * Making a newcomer feel welcome.

Without friendliness:

- * People would not feel loved or welcomed by others.
- * There would be far more unhappiness in the world.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

To be able to know how to introduce yourself and others.

Script:

“In the lesson today children, we are going to be practising some very important skills that you will use all of your life. You will learn how to introduce yourself properly to a group of people, how to find out about others and also how to introduce other people in the class.”

Suggested Resources:

Numbered cards/randomiser with a number for each child.

Suggested Activities:

Circle Time – sit the children in a circle and give them all a number. Now explain to the children that when they hear their number called, they must introduce themselves to the rest of the class by giving their full name, age and one interesting fact about themselves e.g. ‘Hello! I’m John Smith, I am six years old and I like playing rugby.’ Once each child has had a turn, split the children into groups of four and ask them all to go and talk to the other members of their group. They must ask questions of their group members to try and find out interesting facts about them. Explain that when they return, they will have to introduce themselves again but also introduce the other members in their group e.g. ‘Hello! My name is John Smith and I like playing rugby. This is my friend Tia Allen and she likes to eat marmalade on toast.’

Plenary:

Each child completes an introduction sheet for a member of their family or a friend of theirs who is not in school.

Character Coaching

Meaningful Praise:

I appreciate your friendliness towards each other today. If your friends had been new to the class, they would have been made to feel very welcome!

Guidance:

Remember that many people are shy in new situations and it is an act of friendliness if you can help them to meet other people and learn a little about them.
