

Ursula Wright, 80

November 26th

Dear Marcus Rashford,

I am writing this to say thank you, I am just a normal girl from Solihull but when I found out about what you have done for the kids of this country, I knew I had to write this. You have shown great courage and leadership and I can't thank you enough for that.

Growing up as a child I wasn't the wealthiest and I was entitled to free school meals. This is why I am so incredibly pleased that you did this. This petition you made to make sure that children had free school meals over the summer holidays helped so many families across the UK. When the government changed their minds I felt a sense of pride, joy. You helped so many kids and now me, along with many others, idolise you.

I think many people could learn a lesson from you and that is to never give up on what you believe. Despite what was going on you stuck by and it payed off.

I just want to finish by saying thank you again. You don't know how much this meant to me. Thank you.