

Dilemma 4: The Offensive Remark Overheard

You overhear a conversation between two students. The students are making jokes amongst themselves. One student is white, one student is black, and they are making jokes about a friend that relates to the colour of their skin.

