

My name is Anna. I use a wheelchair. I'm 31 years old and I'm a swimmer in the Paralympics. I started swimming when I was 5 and my boyfriend's also a Paralympic swimmer too.	My name's Oliver. I'm gay and I live in London with my boyfriend. I'm 35. I work at a book publishing company and I like going to the cinema and meeting my friends after a long day at work.	My name's Excellence and I'm 13. I just moved here from Nigeria. My dad is Nigerian and my mum was born in the UK. I'm starting at The Charter School after half term. I like watching TV and playing with my baby sister.
My name is Aileen. I'm 81 years old. I live in a flat on my own. I used to be a teacher and I still like to read books. I socialise with other men and women my age. I go to Brixton market on the bus to buy my fruit and vegetables for the week. I love cooking!	My name's Mamraj and I'm 15. My parents moved here from India before I was born. My brother, sister and I go to school in Southwark. My mum and dad both work at St Thomas' Hospital. My favourite subjects are art and geography.	My name is Simon. I go to a school which is especially for people like me, who have autism. I like spending time on my own though, I've got lots of hobbies and I love reading.

Equal opportunities	Accepting everyone's differences and trying to provide equal opportunities
Equality	Behaving differently towards people because they are different to you in some way
Discrimination	A descriptions of groups/ people with a prejudice towards an individual that labels them with certain attributes
Inclusive	Everyone has the same amount of value
Stereotypes	Everyone has the same chance of achieving success

Equal opportunities
Equality
Discrimination
Inclusive
Stereotypes

