Role play scenarios

1.

My sister is so annoying – she is always trying to play with my friends and use all my stuff. I wish she'd just go away and find her own friends to be with!

My phone is broken and I only want to hang out with my sister and her friends but she's so nasty! I hate that she has lots of friends. I don't have anyone to be with!

2.

I hate playing football with Mike he never passes me the ball and always leaves me out in the games!

I've had enough of playing with Dan. He's terrible at playing football and he spoils the game for all of us!

3.

I'm fed up with being called names by my friend Dave. It's really taking the fun out of playing computer games with him. It's especially bad when he does it in front of other people.

Ben can't take a joke. Part of playing the game is a bit of banter together. I don't know any other way of being with him to be honest. It's just what we do!
